New 2ID Website

1. The Second Infantry Division developed a new, improved homepage website. Make it your homepage. This website will provide you with the most up-to-date command information available. It is my intent that over time it will become the single source entry port for web based information for all 2ID Soldiers, Airmen, civilians and family members. This website is designed to become a one-stop shopping center for anyone desiring information on our command.
2. The 2ID website will serve as a reference tool for personnel assigned to Korea, but it will also be an invaluable, user friendly tool for all in-bound Soldiers, Airmen, civilian and family members. There are many superb "links" on this website. I encourage you to take the time to discover this new world of information that is just a click away. To access the website, go to www-2id.korea.army.mil.
3. I am excited about our website, but it is only as good as the accessibility and quality of information on it. We want to make it better every day. I encourage you to contact our webmaster at 2idpao@korea.army.mil with recommendations for changes to content, additional links or feedback of our layout. We are building the best website for our Soldiers, Airmen, civilians and family members possible. Let's do it together.
